

Want help paying for college?

If so, a Sinclair Scholarship might be right for you. If you are a member of a United Methodist Church and plan to attend a United Methodist College/University or a Florida College/University, you may be eligible.

Sinclair Scholarships are awarded annually on the basis of church involvement, community service and academic performance. They are for high school seniors who plan to begin classes in the fall. Awards are renewable for up to three additional years, provided the student remains in good standing at school.

Scholarship applications and guidelines are available on the Florida United Methodist Foundation's website at www.fumf.org or by emailing foundation@fumf.org.

The deadline to apply is March 15.

The Foundation's scholarship committee will consider all completed applications and interview finalists.

Eligibility Requirements:

- A grade point average of 3.0 or higher or academic performance that indicates ability to succeed in college.
- An essay describing your goals and record of church and community service.
- Three letters of reference [at least one from your pastor or youth director].
- An official transcript from your high school.
- A completed application.

The Sinclair Scholarship was established by the late Aleen and Carson Sinclair. It is administered by the Florida United Methodist Foundation. Scholarships are also available at www.gbhem.org.
